

S.S.F. RETREAT ON SPIRITUAL HEALING

- SPEAKERS: Olga N. Worrall and Ambrose A. Worrall of Baltimore, Maryland.
- PLACE: Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota (near Minneapolis).
- WHEN: Registration Sunday, July 6 from 7:00 to 9:00 P. M.
The schedule will begin Monday morning at 7:00 A. M. and close Friday with a healing service. We will break up Saturday morning after breakfast, July 12.
- COST: For tuition and lodging -- $70.00.
- GOAL: To gain a deeper understanding of the development and use of Spiritual gifts and resources applied in Spiritual Healing. There will be lectures, workshops, and small group experiences where the following subjects will be explained, demonstrated, and practiced: Techniques, a way to set up a healing service, intercession, absent healing, ways to develop spiritual awareness and gifts individually and in groups, the place of psychic phenomena, and other related matters.
- WHO: Mature young people and adults. We especially urge pastors to come.
- FACILITIES: The dormitories where we will stay are new buildings air-conditioned for your comfort. The recreational facilities of the college are available to us, including an indoor swimming pool.
- DIRECTIONS: If you are driving, Northfield is on Hwy. 218 south of Minneapolis. If you are coming by plane, train, or bus, there is a bus that runs from Minneapolis to Northfield.

REGISTRATION BLANK

Send registration to office of Spiritual Frontiers Fellowship, 800 Custer Avenue, Suite #1, Evanston, Illinois 60202.

Name _____ Are you a member of S.F.F.? _____

Address _____

Coming by: _____ Car _____ Train _____ Airplane _____ Bus _____ Other (Check One)

Maximum registration will be 120. Members registrations will be considered first.

Small groups will meet from 4:15 to 5:45 each day. Would you like to be considered as a leader of one of these groups? _____ Have you had experience in small groups? _____